ORGANIZATION.

It was early in the fall of 1902 that Fanny Nickolaus and her daughter Amelia from Wayland, Henry county, Iowa, were visiting with near relatives in Wayne and Stark counties, Ohio, that something suggested to their minds how nice it would be to have a family reunion; and no sooner thought, plans were at once laid and invitations sent out, informal, announcing September 18, of that year as the day, and the home of Peter Rich, (her brother, 1 ½ miles south-east of Sterling, Wayne county, O., as the place for this first meeting.

During the forenoon hours while the guests were gathering in and the tables were being spread the idea of a permanent organization was discussed by those who were most interested, while others arranged a program of exercises.

When dinner was called 147 happy people were gathered around the tables, and after satisfying their appetites with the good things spread before them, proceeded soon after to carry out the order of exercises previously arranged for, at the conclusion of which steps were taken to effect a permanent organization which resulted as follows: J. A. Liechty, President; Peter Krabill, Vice President; Elva C. Rich, Secretary and Treasurer; Mary A. Ramseyer, Corresponding Secretary, of the organization known as

THE RAMSEYER-RICH REUNION.

This organization has thus far held annual meetings on the first Saturday previous to June 12 of each succeeding year, and we hope it may ever so continue and answer the object of the organization.

OBJECT.

It shall be the object of this reunion to form a better acquaintance with each other, exchange ideas, lend inspiration, and cheer each other along the pathway of life, morally, intellectually and above all else spiritually, that our reunions here upon earth may not have been in vain, but that they may continue in the other world where we may meet those missing from our list here below.

RAMSEYER DESCENDANTS.

JOHN RAMSEYER, the subject of this little volume, was born in Eckenwell, Canton Berne, Switzerland, in 1776, and died in 1853 on July 4. His life was spent in Switzerland receiving such training in his youth as was consistent with his rank and station in life and the custom of his time.

He was married to *BARBARA KAUFFMAN (just when is unknown to the writer) who was born in Alsace, France, in 1777, and died in 1844.

This couple soon after their marriage settled down in quiet domestic life following agricultural pursuits, patiently putting up with many hardships that many of their descendants know nothing about and would doubt the truth if they should even be told.

So far as the writer can learn this couple were members of the Amish-Mennonite church, the followers of which faith underwent many trials and persecutions; what share they had in them is not known to us.

To this union were born four sons and six daughters, ten in all, quite unlike our modern 20th Century ideas of a family; and when we look at our good old mothers who have brought up large families we see mothers whose health might well be envied. The following are the names of their children and their descendants, viz:

RICH DESCENDANTS.

VI. *BARBARA RAMSEYER

*(Joseph Rich) 1st husband

(Joseph Zehr) 2nd husband, no children.

Barbara Ramseyer was born in Switzerland A. D. 1806 and died at Marshall (now Wayland) Iowa in February A. D., 1874. She was married to Joseph Rich who was also born in Switzerland A. D. 1800 June 6, died there A. D. 1853. Joseph Rich was of far distant English descent. According to tradition there lived in England about A. D. 1200 two brothers by the name Rich and each had a large family. There came a time when differences arose between them and to settle matters the one and his family left England, going into other parts of Europe; (Holland, Germany and Switzerland) and the spelling of the name was changed from Rich to RIECH, REICH and back to RICH again all the same in meaning and family relations. The Rich's are quite numerous in many parts of the United States and Switzerland and quite a large number of them at Columbus, Ohio and vicinity whose connection with this family we are not able to trace.

To this union were born fourteen children; and after Joseph died, Barbara with seven of her children (the youngest 7 years old) came to America, landing in New York City A. D. 1855, came to Orrville, Wayne county, O., and lived one year on the farm of Joseph Wenger about one and one-fourth mile northwest of Orrville. From thence she went to Marshallville, O., where she stayed 6 months, when she started overland to Iowa, taking with her, Peter, Frona, Christian and Elizabeth; Joseph, Katy and Martin having preceded her the previous fall. Here she married a second time, living with her second husband (Joseph Zehr) at Marshall (now Wayland), Iowa, until her death which occurred as noted above.

The family follows:

1. *Magdalena Rich.
2. *Barbara Rich
  - * (Joseph Wurgler) 1st husband
    - (a) Joseph Wurgler
      - (Marie Hauter)

(Albert Mory)

Anna Mory

2. Christian Wenger

3. Joseph Wenger

4. *Marie Wenger

(e) *Christian Grey

(f) Barbara Grey
(Anson Kleiber)

The writer knows very little about the history of the Wurgler family who lived principally in Switzerland, yet Joseph Wurgler and his wife (Marie Hauter Wurgler) and their family came to America in 1906, locating near Sterling, Wayne county, O., where they are engaged in various pursuits in life. Joseph having been a prominent business man in Basel, Switzerland, has a bright industrious family.

D. 1859, and was married to Elizabeth Rich, (who came with her mother Barbara Rich (widow Joseph Rich) in 1855 as noted heretofore) on February 11, 1864. The children nearly all live in Ohio, except

Elizabeth and her family who live in Clayton, New Mexico, U. S. A., and Lydia and her husband who left American shores October 4, 1905, as missionaries to India, Asia.; their address is Dhamtari, C. P., India, Asia. The following article from them has some interesting food-thought in it. We give it just as it is without any changes whatever:

Eleven thousand miles between us and the home-land has not made us think of friends and relatives less frequently than we otherwise would have. The thoughts of the many visits with those close akin by the ties of nature as well as with those not so closely related, are occasions for soothing and refreshing reminiscences, in a far away land.

The various interests which stir the heart of humanity necessitate long separations. If for the sake of "filthy lucre" men leave loved ones for long periods; cannot and should not the ambassadors of the Heavenly King bearing His life giving message be more willing and eager to go than these.

For the sake of religious tolerance our forefathers have gone to the western continent blessed with liberty, religious and civil. Under these advantages through thrift and discretion many bright and happy homes speak for them themselves today. Blessings from the Giver of all good obligate the receiver. 'Freely ye have received freely give,' (Matt. 10: 8.)

The causes for our leaving our eastern homes and living in the Occident still exist in large measure in the land of our fathers. The circumstances which caused them to leave, exist to a much intenser degree in the far East. To the Father who loveth all we owe the debt, of returning and giving to others in the Orient what Occidental privileges have given us.

Only seven years of work in this part of God's field has helped about four hundred and fifty individuals to take a stand for the right. Our own limited experience of but one year in so strange a land has not prepared us as full fledged workers. The fact that loved ones at home are helping us to stand by earnest prayer is soul-cheering indeed.

Though we be separated we are as much united as if we were all living in one neighborhood in the home-land; if we are His children. The pleasure of attending family reunions held annually in the home-land we are with you all very often in the spirit.

When once the limitations of this world due to time and space are put away may we all stand before Him, who has us here for His glory, in the land where separation is not.

CONCLUSION.

The foregoing list of names is as nearly correct as it was possible for us to get them, and sufficient blank leaves are left throughout this little volume to make any correction or addition to the record anyone may desire.

If the effort we have put forth in arranging this work will meet the approval of all concerned we shall have accomplished our object, and feel somewhat repaid for our labors.

Very respectfully yours,

J. A. L.
